The Foundation

The Future Village Foundation was established in 2010 to support the education of impoverished children in rural Nepal. It was started by 7 volunteers from Barclays to conduct English teaching to local children in a remote mountain village in Nepal. The foundation's aims are:

- Provide basic education to children in rural Nepal.
- Provide clean energy and improve infrastructure
- Improve health and sanitation conditions

Key Achievements

- Conducted English teaching and activities to about 300 students in regular visits
- Provided scholarship to 20 students, each receives 5 year basic education sponsorship
- Provided scholarship to 5 orphans, each receives 3 year education sponsorship
- Funded the teacher salary for 5 teachers in 2 projects and provided stationery to schools
- Funded the construction of 2 new classrooms and school toilets, set up library and books donation
- Installed solar panels in local education center and schools to provide lighting and clean energy
- Provided free dental service to 700 children and villagers by collaborating with oversea dentist volunteers and local dental NGO. Sponsored toilet building to 5 local families.
- Conducted Sanitary Napkin Workshop to train village women using local accessible materials to improve hygiene.
- Commenced Youth Development Program to 30 Junior College students to improve employability.

How can you help?

- Sponsorship on education: USD 100 can support a year basic education for one village student. USD 200 can supply a village teacher's salary for one month.
- Volunteering in the Youth Development Programme: to share career experiences with college students in Nepal if you are working in these specific areas: Medical Service, Accounting & IT, Hotel Management, Teaching, Artists.
- Participating in volunteering trips: volunteers need to attend 5 meeting sessions for visit preparation before a one-week volunteering trip to Nepal.

Words from the Volunteers

"It was an extremely enjoyable and rewarding experience. It makes one appreciate what they have and respect those that have less in life. A great way of giving back to society and making great friends!"

-Priyanka Manpuria, India, April 2013 volunteer

The volunteering expedition is a unique self discovery experience that I have never had in my life. Through daily interaction with exuberant children in Katunge and Kathmandu, I learnt from their humility, diligence and the importance of cherishing the most meaningful things in life - human relationships. I am grateful to have the opportunity to make an education difference to the community and would strongly encourage anyone to join the expedition to experience, contribute and make an impact to the development of the rural communities in Nepal."

-Alvis Goh, Singapore, April 2013 volunteer

"Making a trip back to Nepal again was such a rewarding experience for me as I get to see my lovely children in Snowland again and also get to know new children at the orphanage supported by IWDC. Last year, I posted that I have left my heart in Nepal. I think it has sunk deeper now."

-Korin Yong, Singapore, November 2012 & October 2013 volunteer

"Going back to my own country to give back what I can was a great experience. I could relate and understand them much better as had lived half of my life in Nepal. I look forward to visiting the projects again in the future and provide help and support."

- Pankaj Shah, Nepal, April 2013 volunteer

Seeing the kids so happy and appreciative of our effort really touched me. It speaks very clearly of how much a little help can go a long way in improving their lives and that our help, no matter how small, does make a difference.

-Serla Rusli, Indonesia, April 2013 volunteer
